An advertisement for the Worthy app. It features a woman on the right side, smiling and looking at her smartphone. The background is a light blue gradient. On the left, there are several icons: a heart above a diamond being held by hands, and two smaller diamond icons below. On the right, there are three horizontal bars representing price tags, each with a dollar sign and a double underline. A mouse cursor is pointing at the middle bar. At the bottom left, there is a blue rounded rectangle containing the text "The most trusted way to sell your jewelry from home".
